AEIP COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE

Urban Diplomacy and Innovation

What role can cities play in creating innovations that address today's most pressing challenges and strengthen the wellbeing and resilience of their populations?

How can international cooperation help them to fulfill such a role?

Cities, communal actors and organisations working with cities in the fields of innovation and international cooperation are warmly invited to join the AEIP Community of Practice (CoP) on "Urban Diplomacy and Innovation".

The CoP is a collaborative space that connects innovation stakeholders across Europe and Africa that are active at the interface between urban innovation and urban diplomacy. In a workshop atmosphere participants will identify opportunities, best practices, and solutions to the most significant obstacles for urban innovation and international cooperation activities. A special focus will be given on the inclusion of local civil society and diaspora organisations.
